PARENTS' ENGAGEMENT

બાળક પાલક દિન

This month Integrated Child Development Services (ICDS) department celebrated "બાળક પાલક દિન". We participated in our Model Anganwadis with innovative worksheets which take the regular colouring activities to the next level and will not just help fine tune the child's fine motor and cognitive skills but also create an opportunity for bonding with the parents from their mundane lives. Check out more here.

Gearing up for the Workshop

In the first week of June, we'll be kickstarting our capacity building training workshops for semester 1&2 and semester 3&4 for Unnati Program. Our team has been working hard this month by preparing themselves and giving many mocks to perfect their craft.

In addition to our team, it gives us immense pride to share that our graduate cohort of Unnati teachers will be co-facilitating our workshop for the new cohort batch. They along with the team have been working hard to break the wheel of fear and roll out victorious with courage and confidence.

HOW'S IT GOING?

The Toy Libraries have truly proven to be an oasis in these vacation days. Children have enjoyed playing and learning with the toys and have let their imagination run wild with blocks, puzzles, worksheets and many more. As days pass, more and more parents come forward with a request to start the Toy Library in their area as the news of our successful libraries make the news.

Come join us in making this request a reality. You can make a donation in the link below.
